

Sabine Visser

After many years of working as a RTT in the clinic, Sabine Visser started working as a researcher to support the clinical implementation of proton therapy for thoracic indications in Groningen. After implementation, she further specialized in evaluation of the proton treatment for these 4D indications aiming to continuously improve clinical practice.