

SPECIAL INTEREST GROUP

Social work research on migration and asylum

Wednesday 6 April, afternoon (half day)

SIG Conveners: Elena Cabiati (Catholic University of Milan), Emilio José Gómez Ciriano (Universidad de Castilla-La Mancha), Sofia Dedotsi (University of West Attica).

The SIG will have the opportunity to network with current and new members and discuss research initiatives and prospects on social work and migration and asylum.

To share ideas, opinions and feelings about Social work and migration, during the SIG meeting we will work together through photovoice technique (registered participants will be contacted in advance for more information).

Structure of the session:

- 1. Brief introduction by the conveners and Presentation of participants
- 2. Photovoice presentation and discussion about social work research and migration
- 3. Current and next challenges
- 4. Action plan till the next online meeting
- 5. Common lunch