

Arturs Meijers

Arturs Meijers is Head of Clinical Medical Physics at Paul Scherrer Institut. Before joining the Swiss national proton therapy centre in 2022, Arturs lead the proton physics team at the University Medical Centre Groningen, and was responsible for the acceptance and commissioning of its new proton therapy centre. During the same time, Arturs obtained his PhD. During his time at IBA and Varian, Arturs obtained comprehensive industry experience in his role as product manager. Arturs main research interests comprise adaptive proton therapy, proton radiography, automation and process streamlining, and radiobiology. Arturs has co-authored more than 30 peer-reviewed papers, is member of the IBA clinical advisor boards and co-chair of the PTCOG thoracic subcommittee .