

Program of the Parallel Sessions _14th IFoU Conference

Thursday 25 November, 2021

9.30 – 11.00 parallel sessions

Names of the speakers	Titles of the papers
Track 1 Urban-rural Integration and Areas In-Between moderators: Alexander Wandl, Rodrigo Cardoso
Yeeun Boo & Neville Mars Marco Ranzato Henry Endemann	The Java Model - unlocking heterogeneous rural landscapes through cluster based land use analysis NO-CITY: Designing Across the Pluriverse A Compact City for a Beautiful Countryside - Entry-points to a discourse between academic research and institutional strategies
Track 2 The City is an object and a city is in transition moderators: Birgit Hausleitner, Leo van den Burg
Daniel Elkin Wang Linghao ZHUOSHU HE	Between Transitional Centre-Hinterlands: Assessing urban futures in Cape Town and Hong Kong Research on urban plot openness measurement and influencing factors: a case study of Nanjing downtown Diversity of built form: Is it and its relations with other dimensions of diversity well-measured?
Track 3 Political ecology and adaptive and transformative framework moderators: Fransje Hooimeijer, Taneha Bacchin
Isabel Recubenis Sanchis & Geert van der Meulen Diego Sepulveda Dan Teodorovici	Challenges and Opportunities in Upscaling Room for the River. A conversation about large-scale change through small-scale interventions Potential dimensions of socio-environmental approaches as platform for local co-development under climate change variability Governance Frameworks towards Sustainable Infrastructure Transformation – Overcoming deadlocks, resistance and uncertainty through multi-level dialogue
Track 4 Metropolization and the Right to the City moderators: Caroline Newton, Lei Qu
Manfredo Manfredini Yajuan CHEN Inge Goudsmit Haowen WANG	Pervading Mediatisation and the Metastable Social Space of Urban Centres: An Analysis of the Digital Networks of Emerging Ultra-prosumerist Places Collectivistic Culture and Civic Space as Urban Identity: A Theory Based and Human-centric Transformation Strategy for Futian Central District, Shenzhen Who wins and who loses in the production of cultural iconic architecture? A 'Cultural District' to Amend Urban Identity: A Framework to Evaluate Cultural Projects in Hong Kong and Shenzhen
Track 5 Human-centred and nature-based approaches in cities moderators: Claudiu Forgaci, Rene van der Velde
Li Shuangning Joshua Hurtado Hurtado Alisa Kolova Rudi Stouffs	The world inhabited: study the landscape design of Li Zaifengdong village from the perspective of nature Deurbanized cities as strongly sustainable human settlements Analysis of the influence of cognitive-emotional design on mental and physical human health using the example in public architectural environment of downtown in Seoul, South Korea Harnessing the environment for socio-ecological encounters and knowledge spillovers: Lessons from Greater One-north Knowledge City (GOKC) design explorations

11.15 – 12.45 parallel sessions

Names of the speakers	Titles of the papers
Track 1 Urban-rural Integration and Areas In-Between moderators: Alexander Wandl, Rodrigo Cardoso
Shuiyang LIN Christian Nolf KEYI CHEN Liang Jing	The Sub-Urbanisation of New Towns: The Influence of job-housing imbalance on Low-Income Groups' Job Opportunities in Tin Shui Wai, Hong Kong China's Urban Growth Boundaries: Towards a Context-Responsive Method Innovation-oriented Border Region Development: Planning strategies for mutually beneficial urban development between Shenzhen and Hong Kong New Integration under the Network Society—A Case Study of the LIBRAIRIE AVANT-GARDE Bookstore in Shaxi Town, Yunnan Province
Track 2 The city is an object and a city is in transition moderators: Leo van den Burg, Verena Balz
Danyang Lei Andreas Faludi Wahyu Kusuma Astuti	The Use of Special Economic Zone: the Catalytic Effect among Governmental Support, Technology Innovation and Spatial Factors in Shenzhen The tension between object and process: Three spatial planning meta-theories Platform-based housing projects and Jakarta's urban transformation
Track 3 Political ecology and adaptive and transformative framework moderators: Diego Sepulveda, Taneha Bacchin
Raquel Silva Jiao XING Huiyang Qi Marcin Dabrowski	Bridging Ecological Urbanism and Urban Political Ecology for a new vision of Water Sensitivity in cities Limited Development in the Shenzhen Bay Area: A Future Model for Coordinated Development of Urbanisation and Eco-Conservation Mutual adaptation: A perspective in viewing China's regional urbanization Boundary spanning and adaptive capacity in Pearl River Delta megacities
Track 4 Metropolization and the right to the city moderators: Lei Qu, Caroline Newton
Sahar Asadollahi Asl Zarkah & Maurice Harteveld Nina Alisa Habe Jing SONG Yue WEI	Public Spaces for Community Resilience Parameters for independent living in old age in terms of urban planning, mobility, social life and technology Gateway Cities as Multi-cultural Hubs: the history and potential future of Tuen Mun, Hong Kong, as a reception area to facilitate regional migration Built Environment Optimization Strategies under Age-Friendly: Promoting the Elderly Food Market Usage as an Example
Track 5 Human-centered and nature-based approaches in cities moderators: Claudiu Forgaci, Rene van der Velde
Aysu Gürman & Pinar Ergül Taşkıran & Eylem Keskin Fransje Hooimeijer Viktorija Mangaroska trinidad fernandez	Rethinking Living Labs Dialogues between Urban and Rural Context Ecosystem participation in vulnerable geographies Sustainable Development Plan of Urban Mobility as a Concept of Human-Centered and Nature-Based Approach in the City of Skopje, N. Macedonia Global approach - local solutions. Sectorial planning approaches for a sustainable urban future in Piura, Peru.

Friday 26 November, 2021

11.15 – 12.45 parallel sessions

Names of the speakers	Titles of the papers
Track 1 Urban-rural Integration and Areas In-Between moderators: Rodrigo Cardoso, Alexander Wandl
Neville Mars Dan Narita Anam Husain	The Java Model __ a time-weighted network analysis of the desakota Blue-Green Critical Infrastructure beyond Contingency Planning and Risk Management: Towards integrated Regional Design Strategies for In-between Territories of the Greater Bay Area. Re-purposing Peri-Urban spaces of Delhi
Track 2 The city is an object and a city is in transition moderators: Akkelies van Nes, Leo van den Burg
Eletra Camelli Yifan Dong Jiawen Han Eingeel Khan	Field-Urbanism: reconstructing agency of architecture in Milan's core From Border to Interface: Evaluating the Design Strategies in the Regeneration of Industrial Heritage Projects in Shanghai from the Perspective of Public Space - Public Life Public Spatialisation in China: Rethinking the Interface in Industrial Building Renovations by Local and Transnational Design Firms Standing the Test of Time: Urban Heritage for Resilient Communities
Track 3 (no papers for this session)
Track 4 Metropolization and the Right to the City moderators: Caroline Newton, Lei Qu
José Mota & João Seixas Yassine Moustajidi Shuman RAO Anushka Shahdarpuri	Dialogues, tensions and expectations between urban civic movements and city administration - Lessons for urban politics evolution from two recent participatory processes in Portugal Kampung streets as spaces of urban resistance and livelihood generation Case of Bandung, Indonesia Public Spaces as Community Hubs in High-Density Residential Areas, A Case Study of Tuen Mun, Hong Kong How can we plan a city with people, for the people? New Questions and reflections on "Urban Activism": Reinforcing Claims in the 21st Century planning of the City"
Track 5 Human-centred and nature-based approaches in cities moderators: Claudiu Forgaci, Rene van der Velde
Hee sun (Sunny) Choi Maryam Naghibi Joseph Rahul Pallipamula Markus Wemli	Pocket Parks in Hong Kong: a Vital Resource for Both Urban Life and Wellbeing Transforming Leftover Spaces into a Resilient Urban Landscape in Tehran: A MICMAC analysis of Key Social-Ecological Factors Towards Edible Urbanism- Restructuring underutilized urban green voids of Noida, India Designing reflexive spaces with human waste: Cases of regenerative-activist metabolism in Brussels, Berlin and Hong Kong

13.30 – 15.00 Parallel sessions

Names of the speakers	Titles of the papers
Track 1 (no papers for this session)
Track 2 The city is an object and a city is in transition moderators: Akkelies van Nes, Birgit Hausleitner
Andrea Aragone & Chiara Cavalieri Yijing Li Yumeng Wang Luca Luorio	GreenWithGrey: actions and dialogues for a transitioning productive landscape Land Use Indexed Mobility Changes' Impact on Urban Crimes in Metropolitan Cities Emergency Evacuation Assessment of Community Public Open Space in the View of Community Life Circle Integrated coastal flood design strategies: changing paradigm in flood risk management
Track 3 Political ecology and adaptive and transformative framework moderators: Taneha Bacchin, Diego Sepulveda
Elena Longhin Yue Mao PROVIDES NG Ernesto Philibert	Geographies of (hydro)power Water exploitation and urbanisation praxis across the Veneto region "What Do Landscapes Say?": Narrative as a Means of Territorial Design and Planning Collaborative intelligence: Tao of DAO Promoting green street networks: Synergies of active mobility urban projects and Nature-based Solutions
Track 4 Metropolization and the Right to the City moderators: Lei Qu, Caroline Newton
Tanja Herdt & Arend R. Jonkman Mania Cecilia Marengo Diego Moya Ortiz Amelia Seibold	Spatial justice and the NIMBY effect: An analysis of the urban densification debate in Switzerland and the Netherlands Residential production and spatial inequalities, a territorial analysis from the Right to the City. The case of Córdoba periphery Rethinking the metropolisation process in the global crisis. Some critical reflections for planning practices regarding the case of the Metropolitan Area of Santiago COVID-19 and the Right to the City: Informal settlements learning and mobilizing during a pandemic
Track 5 Human-centered and nature-based approaches in cities moderators: Claudiu Forgaci, Rene van der Velde
Sammar Allam Aikaterina Myserli & Isabel Recubenis Sanchis Martin Flugelman Olmeda Cristina Wong	Blue infrastructure Transfiguration as a Nature-based solution to global sea level rise Using GIS 3D Analyst: Adaptive Geographic Metamorphosis Radical Spaces: Value, identity and perception of open green spaces in the Randstad Rioplatense: Archives, surveys and imaginability of Buenos Aires shoreline A sense of place. Site specificity as a way to foster resilient urban landscapes.