

Clermont E. Dionne

Professor and Chair, Department of Social and Preventive Medicine, Faculty of Medicine, Université Laval, Québec City, Canada.

Clermont Dionne is Professor and Chair in the Department of Social and Preventive Medicine, and Professor in the Department of Rehabilitation, Faculty of Medicine, Université Laval, in Québec City, Canada. He is also a senior investigator in the Laval University Hospital Research Centre. He holds a PhD in Epidemiology from the University of Washington (School of Public Health, Seattle). His research program focuses on the epidemiology of musculoskeletal pain. Dr Dionne is involved in many national and international committees, including the Editorial Board of the PAIN journal, in which he works as Epidemiology Section Editor. Dr Dionne has chaired the Local Organizing Committee of Forum XVI (2019).