

We use your data to register you, after which it is destroyed. Your information is not shared with third parties.

Why is this information requested?

We use your data, with your permission, because otherwise we are not able to register you.

How is your data processed?

We use your data to register you. Your data is not shared with third parties.

How long do we retain your data?

Your data is deleted from our systems after the meeting.