

Guidelines for abstract preparation for SCIENTIFIC REPORTS
(EAOPD, version January 2022)

Title: (160 characters maximum, Write the entire title with boldface. Do not use abbreviations)

Authors: (Give the first name, or initials, preceding the last name of every author and institutional appointments but omit degrees and titles. The person presenting the paper should have his/her name underlined. Add email address of the presenting author)

Abstract:

1. Introduction: (background information of the study leading to the aim)
2. Aim of the study: (objectives and purpose of the study).
3. Materials and methods: (a description of the methodology, including statistical evaluation.)
4. Results: (essential findings of the study and results of the statistical analysis. a statements such as 'the result will be discussed' is not acceptable)
5. Conclusions: (the main conclusions based on the results of the study)

Number of words in the abstract: (350 max)

NB1: Abstracts must be typed in English and single-spaced with 12-point, Times New Roman letter type in a word file.

NB2: Do not include illustrations. However, tables may be used.